

LITERARY REVIEW AND RECOMMENDATION FOR “WHEN I SAID YES”

LEXICAL EVALUATION

“Glad to have found this book. Truly, it’s a can’t put down book. The author’s writing is pretty standard. There were easy to discern words making it more susceptible for readers of all ages to understand the inspirational and spiritual values entailed in this book. April expresses faith and hope throughout the book, never once complaining. Perseverance and positivity is what you’ll learn and find in this book. It’s a well written book with appropriate grammars, dictions and punctuations observed. There isn’t any Lexical contempt in her writing”.

CRITICAL REVIEW

It is a story that certainly showed God's hand in building an intimate relationship with the Lord. This book will unfold the author’s life throughout different struggles and tribulations. Started out being hesitant of God at a young age, God’s supernatural power through the Holy Spirit the Holy Spirit she was able to break them. How amazing God showed her forgiveness, love, compassion and humility. I was amazed to know the encouragement and empowerment that we all could appreciate in this book. She writes things that are true accounts of her highs and lows and her deep walk with God. This is an inspiring read which made me attach to the idea that “The greatest blessings come out of the hardest breakings” and will indeed, make us appreciate how hard life has been for most of us but learning to appreciate the beauty that comes out of hard times is very rewarding. This book is highly encouraged as we are now in a serious spiritual warfare. Materials like this is now highly regarded as it brings inspiration to mankind. Moreover, it will continue to create a positive spiritual-impact to both Christian and Non-Christian community.

By: April Phillips

Genre: Christian/Inspirational & Spirituality

GRADED EVALUATION

CLARITY AND CONCISENESS	Her writing is pretty standard and clear.	19.32%
THOUGHT ORGANIZATION	Thoughts were carefully organized and readers will truly understand her life story. She was so grateful to the three inspirational leaders who reminded her to go back to the lead of Christ.	20%
LEXICAL CONTEMPT (Mark down rating)	There is NO lexical contempt.	20%
CONCRETE MESSAGE	No matter how challenged you are and how tough your roads are, everything can be endured and be bore if you live life trusting the Lord with all your hearts. Let us appreciate the beauty that comes out in every event put Christ at the center of every decision we're making. If you doubtful of HIM, He will give you peace in your heart. Build that great relationship with HIM now.	19.38%
OVERALL POTENTIAL	This WILL create a positive impact to people as she continues to inspire and challenge people of all ages through her real life story and how she managed to make wonderful and fruitful relationship with God.	19.32%
RATING	Graded A	98.02%

"I am giving this book a graded A rating of 98.02% as the top 11th book on the recommended list I sent to you on a separate file. Remember they are now arranged chronologically. And please consider this material for the Los Angeles book and Book Expo in New York events.

Sarah Clark Wilson Hackensack, NJ
 Authors Press Senior Literary Book Scout
 September 12, 2018- Date Evaluated

Note: This information is company propriety and is not subject in any way for dissemination, copying, transfer or shared to any entity without company's prior notice. Any violations pursued in this nature, the company has the right to retain all legal remedies to violators